Course Description

First Year

Prerequisite/Recommendation: None.

The first-year course includes an overview of the culture and language integrating: listening, conversing, reading and writing. Students will use the language to gain a global perspective. College-bound students should take the same language for at least two years.

Second Year

Prerequisite/Recommendation: Pass level 1A/1B.

The second-year course builds upon listening, conversation, reading and writing skills acquired in the first-year course with increasing accuracy and complexity.

Third Year

Prerequisite/Recommendation: Pass level 2A/2B with a grade C or better.

The third-year course builds upon listening, conversation, reading and writing skills acquired in the second-year course with increasing accuracy and complexity. Students will increase their confidence in the spoken language through discussion of more diverse topics.

Fourth Year

Prerequisite/Recommendation: Pass level 3A/3B with a grade C or better.

The fourth-year course refines listening, conversation, reading and writing skills acquired in the third-year course. Students will continue to increase their linguistic confidence in the spoken and written language through analysis of various topics.
