Dakota High School (Main gym)

This girls' volleyball camp is designed to teach incoming 7th & 8th graders the fundamental skills of volleyball. It will provide training and competitions at Dakota High School. The camp will focus on developing proper individual techniques such as: forearm passing (footwork, arm position, run-thru, shuffle, and extensions), serving (toss, contact, float, top-spin & jump serves), setting (footwork, hand position and running an offense), attacking (footwork, arm swing, 2 & 3 step approaches), court positioning (offense, defense, 5-1, 6-2). Dakota Varsity volleyball players will help instruct the camp under the supervision of Dakota Varsity coach, Melissa Criteser and coaching staff.
